

Post Op Frenulectomy

Your child may have a swollen lip for a few days. If the lip becomes reddened or swelling increases, please contact your physician.

Minor bleeding should be controlled by holding pressure to the surgical site.

There is minimal to no discomfort with this procedure. Discomfort can be managed with Tylenol® or Acetaminophen.

You may resume normal diet immediately following surgery.